

Larry Michalczyk, MSSW

With 42 years of experience in public services and teaching, Larry Michalczyk currently serves as full time teaching faculty in Social Policy, SW Leadership and student internships at University of Louisville's Kent School of Social Work.

Larry formerly served for 10 years (2000-2010) as a state consultant for KY's Department for Community Based Services. There he developed Community Partnerships for Protecting Children and provided management consulting. From 2007-2010, Larry also served as a state consultant for the Kentucky Race, Community and Child Welfare Initiative (RCCW).

Prior to his UL appointment, Larry served as Vice President of Planning for Seven Counties Services, (community mental health) from 1992-2000. In state government from 1977-1992, Larry formerly served as the Budget Director, Deputy Commissioner and Commissioner of Kentucky's Department for Social Services, predecessor of DCBS (Child Welfare & Juvenile Justice). Larry is a founding Partner of Louisville's Neighborhood Place System (8 one stop family service centers). He has worked extensively with the Edna McConnell Clark, Annie E Casey Foundations and with the Center for the Study of Social Policy in Washington, D.C. Larry is a former Board Member of Prevent Child Abuse Kentucky, Inc, Community Coordinated Child Care (4C's) and 2NOT1 Fatherhood & Families, Inc.

Larry is a graduate of Loyola University, New Orleans, La and received his Master's of Science in Social Work degree from the Raymond A Kent School of Social Work, Louisville, KY.