

Pam Darnall

Pam Darnall is president and CEO of Family & Children's Place and has worked with the agency since 1994. She became president and CEO in January 2014, and is responsible for overall direction, leadership and coordination of organizational activities.

The former president of The Family Place, Darnall helped lead the merger with Family & Children First in 2008, which created Family & Children's Place. She has served in leadership roles for more than 25 years.

Darnall is a graduate of the 2013 Leadership Louisville class, Bingham Fellows Class of 2015, and the Executive Leadership Institute at the University of Michigan. She serves on several committees including the national Alliance for Strong Families and Communities, Louisville Metro Department of Public Health & Wellness Healthy Babies Advisory Committee, the Domestic Violence Prevention Coordinating Council, Metro United Way's Community Impact Cabinet, and is a current Board member of the Center for Non Profit Excellence. She was an inaugural Alden Fellow, and is a past recipient of the Business First Enterprising Woman award. Darnall holds a master's degree in counseling psychology from Spalding University in Louisville, Ky.