Kentucky Oral Health Coalition (KOHC) is a group of concerned citizens, advocates, and professionals working together to improve oral health across Kentucky. For more than a decade, KOHC has been advocating to expand school-based oral health services, improve oral health awareness, and increase access to oral health care. This work can only be sustained by the support of members, donors, and sponsors.

Sponsors can help KOHC provide an annual statewide convening that brings together a diverse and large number of leaders in the oral health community, including health advocates, health professionals, educators, and students, to increase dental awareness, develop strategies to improve oral health, and increase access to care. Kentucky Youth Advocates believes all children deserve to be safe, healthy, and secure. As the independent voice for Kentucky’s children, we work to ensure policymakers create investments and policies that are good for all children and help amplify the voices of kids and families across the commonwealth.

We also conduct research and education that informs and recommends solutions to help kids and families succeed, and we present the “state of kids” to communities to help people know how children are faring and how to address problems. We mobilize advocates to take action on behalf of kids and families through rallies, advocacy trainings, partnerships, and action alerts. We help families through our case advocacy program and serve as their guide when they don’t know where to turn. And we engage youth by training the next generation of leaders to advocate for themselves and their communities.

With thousands of materials distributed and event attendees, hundreds of media stories, and more than a million social media impressions each year, Kentucky Youth Advocates is working to make Kentucky the best place in America to be young.

Help us make an impact.
