

Join Kentucky Youth Advocates as a

Health Youth Ambassador to be part of a statewide cohort, learn about advocacy, address social determinants of health through policy change, and advocate for yourself and your peers on health-related issues.

Your one-year cohort will:

- Meet peers from around the state
- Attend 2 in-person, overnight retreats in July and February
- Attend monthly virtual check-ins
- Gain new skills in advocacy, leadership, and communications
- Participate in advocacy activities during the legislative session and throughout the year
